Creative Industries Network

Creative Industries Network is a co-operation network for entrepreneurs, developers and business representatives. The network is steered and funded by the Ministry of Employment and the Economy.

Networking Started in 2007

Work and objectives:

To make creative economy visible by cooperation

- aims to systematise the development of creative industries
- support diverse networking between entrepreneurs in the creative industries and other industries
- support the strategic development of the creative industries

The work of the Creative Industries Network includes spreading good practices as well as recognising new possibilities and developing new, open-minded initiatives.

We arrange yearly coaching, training, events and workshops for entrepreneurs and developers.

What is important / Challenges

- Identifying the spill-overs and implications to rest of the economy
- Integration of cultural and creative industries in different policy frameworks, local and regional strategies, education
- Cross-border cooperation, networks, networks, networks
- Lack of available funds
- Tomorrow's ideas, yesterday's support systems
